Document drawn up in accordance with the “Clear, straightforward contracts” guidelines

The full pre-contractual and contractual information relating to the product is provided in other documents.

What type of Insurance is covered by the policy?

This policy is targeted at natural persons participating in amateur sports events in Italy who wish to be covered against the loss of connected expenses should their participation in the sports event be cancelled on a variety of grounds.

What is covered by the insurance?

The Insurance reimburses, within the scope of the Claim limits, the penalty charged to the Insured, which is not otherwise recoverable:

- for the acquisition of the Race bib
- for the acquisition of the Additional services

if the Insured is forced to cancel the Trip following an unexpected, unforeseeable, documentable event, that occurred during the Period of Insurance.

What is not insured?

- X Sports Event to be held abroad;
- X Professional sports event

Is the coverage limited?

Requests for Compensation stemming or originating from the following are excluded from the coverage:

1. any pre-existing medical condition (relating to an Illness or Accident), for which medical advice or examination and/or care or treatment was received, or which manifested and/or was contracted before registering for the Trip and the issuing of the Policy Certificate; this exclusion applies to the Insured, Family members, a Partner/Member/Joint owner of the company/business of the Insured or to the Travelling companion;
2. epidemics or pandemics on the basis of statements made by the World Health Organisation, with the exception of Covid-19;

Where the coverage applies

- ✓ The Insurance applies to Sports events held in Italy.

What am I obliged to do?

Every Claim must be filed within 10 days from the event or as soon as the Insured is able to do so.

The application for Compensation may be sent to the Insurer using one of the following methods:

- by e-mail: claims@netinsurance.it;
- by registered mail with advice of receipt: Net Insurance S.p.A. c/o P.O. Box 106, 26100 CREMONA – Italy.

How much must I pay and how?

The Insured is responsible for paying the Premium.

When does the coverage start and end?

The Insurance takes effect from 12.00 midnight:

- on the date of issue of the Policy Certificate if the Sports event takes place within the next 150 days;
- on the 150th day prior to the Sports Event if this takes place more than 150 days after the date of issue of the Policy Certificate.

The coverage comes to an end, without being impliedly renewed, at midnight on the day of the Expiration of the Period of Insurance, which corresponds to the date on which the Sports event is held.

How can I cancel the policy?

The policy cannot be cancelled.

Furthermore, the product does not provide for any right of withdrawal.

HOW CAN I MAKE A COMPLAINT AND SETTLE DISPUTES?

To the insurance company	Complaints, intended as the expression of dissatisfaction with an insurance company or its agent and employees or working associates, regarding an insurance contract or service (ISVAP (Italian supervisory body for private insurance) Regulation no. 24 issued in 2008, art. 2 (t-bis), must be sent in writing, by post, fax or e-mail, to: Net Insurance S.p.A. - Complaints Office Net Insurance S.p.A., Via Giuseppe Antonio Guattani, 4 – 00161 Rome Fax 06 89326.570 - Certified e-mail: ufficio.reclami@pec.netinsurance.it In order that complaints be dealt with as effectively as possible, the following data must be provided: • name, surname and domicile of claimant and any telephone number and/or email address; • policy number; claim number, if open; identity of the subject/s whose actions are being challenged; • short but comprehensive description of the grounds for the complaint; attachment of any document that may help to substantiate the claim. Once the Insurance company has received the complaint, it has a period of 45 days (extendible by up to a maximum of 15 days in the case of a complaint regarding the conduct of an agent, employee or working associate, when the company asks for further, supplementary documentation in order to process the complaint) to reply, stating the relevant grounds, using straightforward language that can be easily understood. It is pointed out that requests for information or clarification, requests for indemnification of damage or for the execution of the contract, are not considered complaints.
TO IVASS (Italian Insurance Supervisory Authority)	If the party directly concerned, also acting through its representatives, is not satisfied with the outcome of the complaint or has not received a reply with the maximum period of 45 days (extendible by up to a maximum of 15 days in the circumstances described above), before bringing an action before the courts, it may contact: 800486661 – Fax 06.42133745 – 42133353 - www.ivass.it The request must be drawn up in writing and contain the following information: • claimant's personal details (name and surname, postal address, email address - and also certified email, if available, any telephone number; identity of the subject/s whose actions are being challenged; • short but comprehensive description of the grounds for the complaint; copy of the complaint filed with the insurance company and any reply received; any document that may help give a full description of the facts. A complaints form is available on the IVASS website that can be used to provide all the information necessary for the complaint to be processed. The following must be sent directly to IVASS: • complaints about alleged non-observance of the rules contained in Italian Legislative Decree no. 209 of 7 September 2005 (Code of Private Insurance) and implementing regulations; • complaints about alleged non-observance of the rules contained in Italian Legislative Decree no. 206 of 6 September 2005 (remote sales); • complaints already filed directly with the insurance company or agents, for which a reply has not been received by the parties concerned by the deadline stated in the ISVAP (Italian supervisory body for private insurance) Regulation n. 24/2008 or for which a reply has been received, which is considered unsatisfactory; • complaints regarding the settlement of cross-border disputes.
BEFORE BRINGING A COURT ACTION, alternative systems for the settlement of disputes are available, such as:
Mediation	Any dispute relating to the insurance contracts entered into with Net Insurance S.p.A. are subject to Italian jurisdiction, and an action may therefore be brought before the judicial authorities, following the mandatory attempt to settle the matter through the mediation procedure (art. 5 of Italian Legislative Decree 28/2010, as amended and supplemented) referring the dispute exclusively to a mediation body accredited by the Ministry of Justice and recorded in the register of mediation bodies, which may be consulted on the website run by that Ministry (www.giustizia.it). Arbitration may be used for products to which the procedure applies, in the form and manner stated in the insurance conditions. Complaints which have already been brought before the courts or for which court proceedings are pending do not fall within the jurisdiction of IVASS (Italian Insurance Supervisory Authority).
Assisted negotiation	Making an application to the company through your legal adviser.
Alternative systems for the settlement of disputes	In the settlement of cross-border disputes, the complaint may be filed directly with the competent foreign system, that is, in the area in which the company that entered into the contract has its head office (contacted at the address: http://ec.europa.eu/finance/fin-net/), or the IVASS (Italian Insurance Supervisory Authority), which will forward the complaint, notifying the claimant.
Insurance Arbitrator or alternative dispute resolution system	By filing a complaint: - to the Insurance Arbitrator through the portal available on the Arbitrator's website (www.arbitroassicurativo.org), where you can consult the eligibility requirements, other information regarding the filing of the complaint, and any other useful information - or - to the alternative dispute resolution system of the FIN.NET network to which the company belongs or is subject pursuant to Article 2, paragraph 3 of the Decree of the Minister of Enterprise and Made in Italy of November 6, 2024, No. 215.

What is the right to be forgotten in cancer?
Right to be forgotten in oncology	If the customer has previously suffered from oncological diseases—for which active treatment has been concluded, in the absence of recurrence, for more than ten years, as provided for by Law No. 193 of December 7, 2023, and its implementing decrees—the customer is not required to provide information or undergo any type of investigation (e.g., medical examination) regarding this previous disease. The deadline is reduced from ten to five years if the disease began before the customer's twenty-first birthday. For oncological diseases covered by Law No. 193 of December 7, 2023, and its implementing decrees, shorter deadlines are provided, as indicated in the Table, available on the company's website at the following link: https://www.netinsurance.it/comunicazioni/diritto-alloblio-oncologico/
Certification of the existence of the necessary requirements for the purposes of oblivion of cancer	Customers who, prior to signing or renewing their insurance policy, have provided information regarding their health status, including any previously diagnosed oncological conditions for which active treatment has been completed without recurrence, must promptly send the insurance company or intermediary the certification issued to them, in accordance with Law No. 193 of 2023 and subsequent implementing decrees.
Effects of cancer oblivion on insurance company	Once the period for the right to be forgotten in cancer treatment has expired, any information already acquired cannot be used to modify the contractual conditions, assess the risk of the transaction, or assess the client's solvency. Companies are required to permanently delete data relating to previous cancer conditions within 30 days of receiving the certification, at no cost to the client. Contractual clauses stipulated in violation of the provisions of Article 2, paragraphs 1 to 5 of Law No. 193 of 7 December 2023 are null and void, without prejudice to the effectiveness and validity of the contract. The nullity only benefits the policyholder or the insured and is subject to ex officio review at any stage and level of the proceedings.

THE COMPANY DOES NOT HAVE AN INTERNET AREA RESERVED FOR THE INSURED IN RELATION TO THIS CONTRACT (HOME INSURANCE) AND YOU WILL NOT THEREFORE BE ABLE TO CONSULT SUCH AN AREA AFTER THE CONTRACT HAS BEEN SIGNED.

Policy covering Pecuniary loss

INSURANCE CONDITIONS

Art. 1 - Statements relating to circumstances affecting the Risk

Inaccurate or incomplete statements by the Contracting party or the Insured, relating to circumstances influencing the assessment of the Risk may lead to the total or partial loss of the right to Compensation and may terminate the Insurance in accordance with Articles 1892, 1893 and 1894 of the Italian Civil Code.

Art. 2 - Insurance cover on behalf of others - Rights and obligations stemming from the Insurance cover

The obligations stemming from the Insurance must be performed by the Contracting party, with the exception of any obligation that, by its nature, cannot be performed by the Insured, as provided for in art. 1891 of the Italian Civil Code.

Art. 3 - Effect and duration of the contract - Effective date of cover

The Insurance takes effect from 12.00 midnight:

- on the date of issue of the Policy Certificate if the Sports event takes place within the next 150 days;
- on the 150th day prior to the Sports Event if this takes place more than 150 days after the date of issue of the Policy Certificate.

The coverage comes to an end, without being impliedly renewed, at midnight on the day of the Expiration of the Period of Insurance, which corresponds to the date on which the Sports event is held.

The cover is effective provided that the Premium has been paid in advance on the effective date of the Insurance.

Art. 4 - Calculation of the Premium

The Premium is paid in advance for the entire Period of Insurance.

The Insured is responsible for paying the Premium.

Art. 5 - Withdrawal

Pursuant to art.67 duodecies (5)(b) of Italian Legislative Decree 206/2005, this insurance product does not envisage the right of withdrawal.

Art. 6 - Other insurance cover

The Insured is relieved of the obligation to give notification of any other insurance cover relating to the same Risks covered by this Insurance contract, yet is nevertheless obliged to notify all the insurers and request the Compensation due from each of them under the respective contract considered separately, pursuant to art. 1910 of the Italian Civil Code.

Article 7 - Amendments to the Insurance

Any amendments to the Insurance contract must be drawn up in writing.

Art. 8 - Communications and notices

All communications or notices that the Contracting party, the Insured or the Beneficiaries are obliged to send must be in written form and are effective from the moment they reach the Insurer.

Art. 9 - Tax charges

This contract is subject to insurance taxation applied in Italy.

Art. 10 - Uninsurable persons

The following persons are uninsurable, regardless of an actual assessment of their state of health: persons affected by alcoholism, drug addiction, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (A.I.D.S.), subjects who are HIV-positive, those affected by epilepsy, Parkinson's disease or any of the following mental illnesses: organic brain syndrome, schizophrenia, forms of manic-depression or paranoia.

Art. 18 - Obligations in the event of a Claim

Every Claim must be filed within 10 days from the event or as soon as the Insured is able to do so.

The application for Compensation may be sent to the Insurer using one of the following methods:

- by e-mail: claims@netinsurance.it
- by registered mail with advice of receipt: Net Insurance S.p.A. c/o P.O. Box 106, 26100 CREMONA – Italy.

When filing a claim, the following documents must be submitted:

- a. Documentation certifying enrolment in the Sports Event;
- b. Documentation certifying the acquisition of Additional services;
- c. Documentation certifying the penalty charged to the Insured.

The Insurer may request further documentation at a later date in order to settle the Claim, which the Insured is obliged to submit.

The Insured is also obliged to notify the Tour Operator, organiser and/or Travel agency with which the booking was made of his or her intention to cancel the Trip.

Failure to fulfil the obligations relating to the filing of a Claim may result in the loss of the right to the Compensation, in accordance with art. 1915 of the Italian Civil Code. In particular, if the Insured is forced to cancel the Trip due to Illness or Accident, without Hospitalisation, the Insurer reserves the right, with the Insured's consent, to have its own doctor verify that the Insured's condition prevents him or her from taking part in the Trip.

If the Insured fails to fulfil the aforementioned obligations and/or does not permit the Insurer to have its own doctor sent and/or to carry out an examination in order to verify that the Insured's condition prevents him or her from taking part in the Trip, the Insurer reserves the right to consider a total or partial reduction of the Compensation.

The Insured releases any medical practitioners that may be instructed to examine the Claim and to treat him or her before or after the time of the Claim, or those that may have been instructed to examine the Claim itself, from their obligation of professional secrecy preventing them from disclosing information to the Insurer.

Furthermore:

- The Insured must make all reasonable efforts to avoid or reduce any damage or injury that may give rise to a request for Compensation on the basis of this Insurance;
- The Insured must keep the policy documents and related attachments, as proof of the coverage. In the event of a Claim, these documents must first be sent to the Insurer so that the cover guaranteed can be provided;
- The Insured must lend the Insurer his or her assistance to enable it to have recourse to other subjects or other insurers in order to recover any amounts paid. For this purpose, the Insured must provide the Insurer with all the information requested and complete any necessary forms.
